

Saturday, January 20th
at 11am

Financial Planning for Adults

Learn more about planning for your financial future after your retirement from financial experts.

Get tips on what you need to know about your current financial situation and what types of investments & savings plans are available to you from different financial institutions.

This program is geared toward adults aged 50+ or who are nearing retirement.