Library News

First Annual Jacksonville Cemetery Stroll

On Sunday, October 8th at 2pm – 4:30pm, step through time to visit with some of Jacksonville’s past residents! Stroll through the City Cemetery on Church Ave. SE and hear personal stories told by modern citizens – some actual descendants- in period dress. Enjoy stories from citizens from many different walks of life and as far back as the Revolutionary War!

This is a FREE, family-friendly event; however tax deductible donations are always welcome.

Parents may choose to leave their younger children at the supervised play and story area near the entrance while they and older children enjoy the stroll. A bus will be available from the parking lot on Pelham to the Cemetery gates.

In the event of inclement weather, the Cemetery Stroll will be held on Sunday, October 15th at 2pm – 4:30pm.

This event is the first in a series of events leading up to Alabama’s Bicentennial in 2019. If you would like to tell your ancestor’s stories or volunteer in some other capacity at the 2018 Cemetery Stroll, contact the library after Tuesday, October 17th.
