

Return a Kindle Book Early

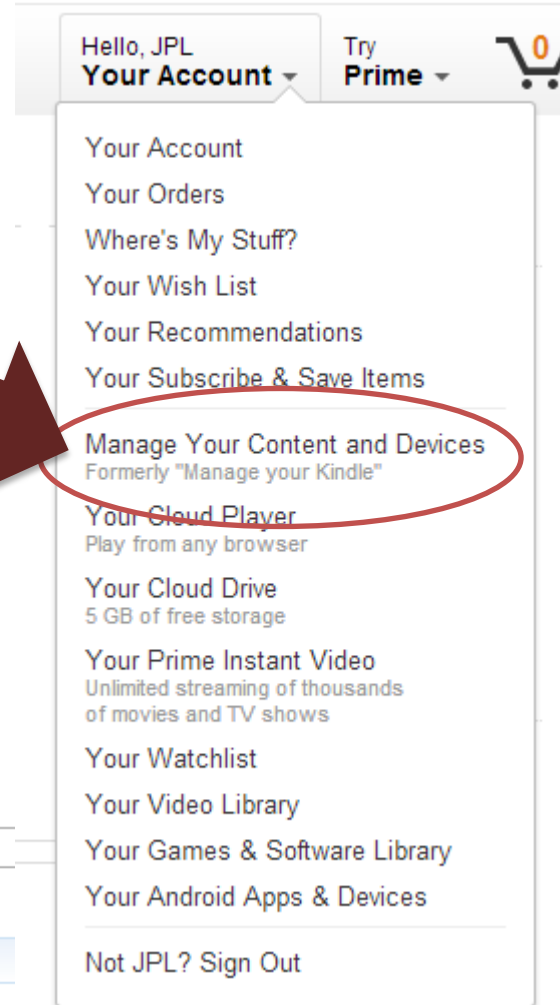

These are the instructions on how to return Kindle books through the Amazon website. You cannot return a book early through the Kindle reading app on a device.

1. Log on to your account on the Amazon website.

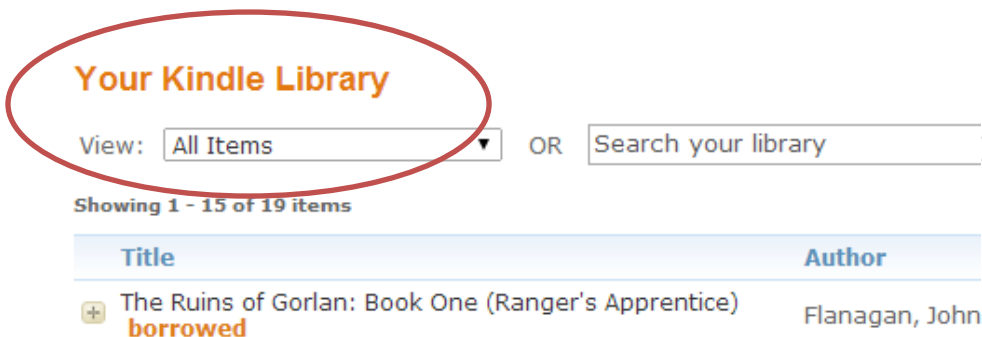

2. Hover over your name in the right corner to get a drop down menu for more options for your account.

3. Click on the option for "Manage Your Content and Devices. This was previously called "Manage Your Kindle."

4. This will bring up a page called "Your Kindle Library" which is a list of books, audios, music and apps that you have downloaded for your device.

5. Find the title that you have checked out, and click on the “Actions” button to the right of the date you downloaded the book. This opens a pop up menu.

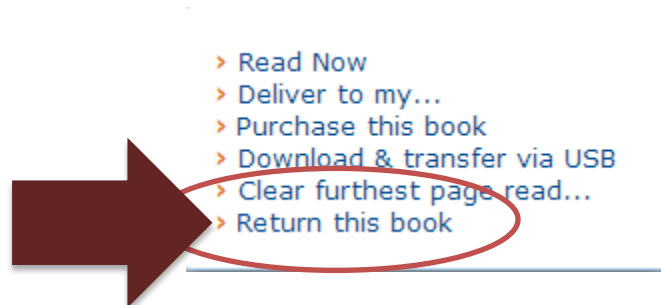

Your Kindle Library

View: OR

Showing 1 - 15 of 19 items

Title	Author	Date ▼	Actions... ▼
 The Ruins of Gorlan: Book One (Ranger's Apprentice) borrowed	Flanagan, John A.	May 6, 2014

6. In this pop up menu, select “Return this book.”

7. This will open a pop up menu that will ask you for confirmation to return the book early. Click “Yes” to return the book.

If you click “Yes” and were not finished with this book, you will have to check it out and download it again if it is available.*

Return Loan Confirmation

Title: The Ruins of Gorlan: Book One (Ranger's Apprentice)

Author: Flanagan, John A.

Are you sure you want to return this Library Loan Ebook?

8. Now in the “Your Kindle Library” menu, the item will have the notation ‘loan expired’ to indicate the item has been returned and is no longer available for you to read.

